City & county to join in celebration of U.S. Constitution

ELBA MAYOR DECLARES UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION WEEK - Elba Mayor Bob English proclaimed the week of Sept. 17-23 as United States Constitution Week in the city recognizing the week's upcoming start of the celebration of the signing of the

The 200th anniversary of the United States Constitution will be celebrated on Thursday, Sept. 17, across the nation and members of the John Coffee Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) as well as city and county officials have combined efforts to assure the anniversary is celebrated in Coffee County.

Coffee County Probate Judge Marion Brunson and Elba Chamber of Commerce Director Mrs. Jean Kennett held a press conference last Friday at the courthouse and announced that the City of Elba would take part in the celebration with ceremonies on Thursday, Sept. 17, on the courthouse lawn.

The ceremonies will begin at 3 p.m. on the west side of the courthouse and will officially begin when the Elba United Methodist Church will ring its bell for 200 seconds in unison with bells across the nation. The Elba High School band will present a patriotic concert on the square and after patriotic readings are recited, 200 red, white and blue balloons will be released by students in the Elba City Schools.

"We've asked all Elba merchants to join in the celebration by displaying the flag during the festivities," stated Mrs. Kennett, "and all citizens are also encouraged to show their patriotism by flying Old Glory."

The beginning of the celebration and will be followed by the 200 seconds of bell ringing. It should be a day of celebration and we are going to join in on the fun!"

Mrs. Kennett also explained that the Elba Public Library will have patriotic displays during the days leading up to the actual anniversary and will feature books about the history of the nation and the Constitution.

Any person or group that wishes to join in on the celebration should contact Elsie Hilton at 894-6742 or Charlotte Hobson at 347-3434.

"Thursday the town clock will strike 3 p.m. and the chime will mark the beginning of the celebration and will be followed by the 200 seconds of bell ringing. It should be a day of celebration and we are going to join in on the fun!"

End of proration applauded by state educators

The announcement last week by Alabama Gov. Guy Hunt that he was ending proration in the education budget and restoring $34 million to schools across the state brought smiles to school officials who have battled the proration plague in recent years and have cut back many needed items in order to meet a limited budget.

A reported surge in revenue collections, primarily from income taxes that collected at a higher rate than expected, allowed the governor to call the end to budget cuts that have forced schools to put off maintenance of important facilities and forced a severe cutback in operations funds.

It gives me great pleasure to order that the remaining approximately $34 million be distributed to the school systems throughout the state this month," stated Gov. Hunt on Wednesday of last week. "Proration is a devastating plague that has afflicted our education system in the past and my goal is to make sure that state government never again has to take money away that was promised for the education of the children of this state. We want jobs for our people and a better way of life and to reach those lofty goals we must have one of the best education systems in the nation."

Gov. Hunt reduced education proration from five percent to two percent, and as a result of increased revenue collections, and in announcing the lifting of proration last week noted he was careful to make sure there would indeed be enough money available.

"Current figures from the finance office indicate that the dollars will be available to meet the needs of the budget for the remainder of the year," stated Hunt. "I delayed lifting the proration until I received this assurance in order to avoid the possibility of having to reinstate proration."

Elba to receive $30,000

The recent end of proration in the education budget will mean approximately $30,000 to the Elba City School System, according to Supt. of Education Billy Crews.

"The state withheld five percent of the amount budgeted to the system until July, when the governor cut the proration to two percent," stated Crews, "and now that he has ended the proration of the 1986-87 budget, we should receive approximately $30,000 that had been withheld. With the proration figure at five percent we were looking at a cutback of nearly $75,000, and in the past three months we have recouped the entire amount. We felt like proration would end, but all we could do was keep our fingers crossed and hope."

Crews stated the schools needed renovations and that desks and carpet were needed, but stated long-range priorities would be established and the money would be used wisely.

Dr. Teague reported the elimination of proration would help the school systems pay off debts accumulated during the budget cuts and allow the maintenance on facilities that need it, as well as maintenance on school buses and equipment and the purchase of equipment and instructional materials such as books.

Farmers and bankers warned of loan company

Attorney General Don Siegelman is warning farmers and bankers about a company that agrees to refinance farm loans at lower monthly rates, and issues false drafts for farmers to pay their banks.

Siegelman said Common Title Bond & Trust of Nevada and California is expanding its operation and it is possible the company will try to take advantage of Alabama farmers.

The attorney general warned farmers and bankers not to use or accept "sight drafts" which the group issues to farmers for repayment, but which actually are worthless.

Common Title Bond & Trust promises to help farmers in refinancing and repayment of various loans, says Siegelman, and farmers must give promissory notes, deeds of trust or up-front money to the company for these alleged services.

For these fees, Common Title Bond & Trust issues sight drafts to the farmers, who are instructed to give them to their original lenders as payment for their outstanding debts.

Common Title Bond & Trust tells farmers that these sight drafts will constitute payment in full and lawsuit in the lawsuit the chicken farmers and producers from Coffee and Covington Counties allege that ConAgra, a chicken processing plant located near Enterprise, committed fraud by "short-weighting" chickens from 1979 through 1981.

A separate class action suit has also been filed against the company alleging fraud and the class action suit includes the names of 210 plaintiffs.

The suit will be heard by a jury and will be conducted by Butler County District Judge Joseph Poole beginning on Nov. 30. Poole didn't have enough maintenance supplies and maybe employ another person in the department. We'll also look at the purchase of instructional supplies and I assure you we have a need that will be filled with the funds."

Lawsuit headed to court

A $45 million lawsuit filed almost five years ago by five south Alabama farmers will finally make its way to the courtroom soon according to court officials in Coffee County.

In the lawsuit the chicken farmers and producers from Coffee and Covington Counties allege that ConAgra, a chicken processing plant located near Enterprise, committed fraud by "short-weighting" chickens from 1979 through 1981.

Brainstorms

By Ferrin Cox, Publisher

The Alabama Democratic Party needs to get back into the mainstream with the majority of the people and no one knows this better than the party leaders themselves. The fact that they were right in denying Charlie Graddick the Democratic nomination for governor, never was understood by the general public. The net result was a Republican governor for the state and some red faces at Democratic headquarters as they continue to try and explain just why they did what they did.

There is promise of a new industry for Elba. A company has shown an interest in opening a manufacturing facility locally and will be visiting the area soon to put the whole thing together, assuming they can reach an agreement with public officials. We can't count these new jobs just yet, but the fact that someone is looking is positive. Of course very little is known about this deal and we haven't asked any questions, but this and pieces are working their way through the community.

Elba football fans are already rumbling thoughts of a state championship this year. It is mighty early to start such talk but these folks believe in the young men of the Tiger football team and their coaches. Any such ambitions must begin with the game Friday night and continue one game at a time. Our demands are somewhat easier to reach. . . all we ask is that they do their very best on this play and the next one.

Potential candidates for president of the United States are beginning to drop out for reasons other than those of Gray Hart. As the time actually gets closer, some find the necessary millions of dollars in campaign funds just ain't there, others realize the voters are not going to vote for them. Some say they just don't want to sacrifice their private lives and those of their families enough to be a serious candidate. We understand them all and continue our train of thought with concern that this type thinking could spread and it would get harder and harder to get qualified candidates to offer themselves for the highest office in the country. Already most folks would refuse, simply because they don't want folks. . . news media. . . prying into their every trip to the bathroom.

The Roman Catholic Pope John Paul II is coming for a 10-day visit beginning today. This man is very important to the members of his church and to the world. This is signified by the fact that over half a million people are expected at one or more of his public appearances. $20 million is being spent on preparing for his visit and supplying police protection, and 16,000 members of the news media have filled out the necessary papers to be present at his various public appearances. This signifies that a lot of people know the respect this man carries with him everywhere he goes. The closest he will get to this area is his stop in New Orleans, La.

You might get the chance to chat with James Bond (007) on your next trip to the friendly Ford dealership nearest you. It was announced this week that Ford Motor Co. has agreed to pay about $32 million for a 75 percent interest in the British automobile manufacturing firm of Aston Martin. That is the company that built the car Bond drove in "Goldfinger" and in "The Living Daylights." Of course when you pay $170,000 for one of these handmade autos, don't expect to have it equipped with the James Bond machine guns and ejection seats. More than likely yours will resemble the one driven by Britain's Prince Charles.

We are already into September and are of course still having some very hot weather. However, there are signs that fall is arriving. We ain't seen any of the peanuts being plowed up or anything like that, but the weather has a hint of fall, at least early in the morning. Plus, we have noticed a little "fall smell" at least twice in the evenings. There will still be a lot of hot weather, but it won't last forever.

Warns

Reserve Banks do not honor the sight drafts issued by the company.

"Using these sight drafts will not relieve farmers of their debts, and will only cost more in the long run," Siegelman warned. If farmers encumber their lands with trusts, the titles will eventually have to be cleared. Farmers' resources would be better applied elsewhere in a dependable, legitimate plan.

Farmers may check these offers to find loans or refinance existing loans for a fee with their banker or with the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division by calling 1-800-392-5658.

Ft. Rucker Issues Restrictions

Motorcyclists traveling on Fort Rucker are now required to dress in full protective gear. Army Regulation, 385-55, Prevention of Motor Vehicle Accidents, was recently published and outlines significant changes for operating a motorcycle on a military installation. The new regulation states that to operate a motorcycle or moped on an Army installation, the driver must be currently licensed by civil authorities; complete an Army approved motorcycle safety course; have headlights on at all times, both day and night; and wear a properly fastened, approved helmet.

Motorcyclists must also wear proper eye protection (either clear goggles or a face shield attached to the helmet), full-fingered gloves, long trousers, long-sleeved shirt or jacket, high-visibility garments (bright color for day and retro-reflective for night) and leather boots or over-the-ankle shoes.

These rules apply whenever soldiers are riding, both on and off post during duty hours, as well as during off duty hours. Civilians must wear the helmet while driving or riding as a passenger on post or while on government business off the installation. The motorcycle must have two rearview mirrors if registered or operated on the installation. Riders may never use headphones or earphones while driving on a military installation.

The regulation also applies to civilians who work on post, Department of the Army civilians, non-appropriated fund employees and contractor employees.

"The Army has done a lot in the past to decrease the number of motorcycle accidents. Specifically, each installation is required to offer a motorcycle safety course which all affiliated motorcyclists must pass before driving on post," said Maj. Paul Goldsmith, operation officer with the Military Police Activity.

According to Bobby Parrish, occupational safety and health specialist at the Fort Rucker Safety Office, the full gear concept has always been endorsed with the motorcycle safety program here. "Wearing the extra equipment is just good common sense and judgment, because they are for your own good. Now it's not optional; it's in the regulation."

Ticketing for violations of this new regulation will not begin until a full-hearted educational campaign has been completed," Goldsmith added.

"We're not looking at this regulation as an opportunity to run out and issue a lot of tickets. There will be an extended grace period. The intent of the new regulation is not to hassle or inconvenience motorcyclists, but to ensure their safety in the event of an accident," said Goldsmith.

Before tickets will be issued, a campaign "to get the word out" will be conducted. The Military Police Activity will be periodically stopping people who are in violation of the regulation to tell or explain it to them.

"The Military Police Activity is certainly going to do its part in enforcing this regulation, but not until we have done everything we can to get the word out," Goldsmith said.

We Receive Letters...

Dear Editor,

This is an open letter to all parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts and friends of children who attend the Elba City Schools.

I would like to know why the Elba City Schools cannot operate on the funds appropriated by the State of Alabama plus the local sales tax and the taxes that all property owners pay each year which are earmarked for the schools.

I for one can tolerate the state taxes which we all pay, plus the sales tax and property taxes, a portion of which are earmarked for schools, but I cannot tolerate with any degree of serenity the constant week-in and week-out selling of "things" by school children to make money for the schools.

Why - when so many of our state schools are doing an excellent job of educating our children on the monies appropriated for that purpose by the state and local governments - can't Elba do the same?

How many mothers and dads and grandparents can look down into the face of a small child and say, "No, I can't buy that - I need that money to pay for food, clothing and shelter"? Furthermore, if a child received such an answer, how much of it would he or she understand?

Let's wake up, people. As long as we continue to support this type of thing it will go on and on and on. . . On the other hand if we plant our feet firmly and refuse to support this exploitation of our children it will of necessity stop. What's your choice?

Any answer - Mr. Superintendent? I could have given the exact amount of monies that the state sends down for every allotted teacher and the amount the state allows for each child enrolled on the basis of the ADA, but I'll let you do that if you choose.

I patiently await your explanation.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

I wish to relate a personal experience. Late Sunday afternoon, my wife, Jean, and I were returning to Fort Walton Beach, Florida from Atlanta. On the outskirts of Elba, our car began running poorly but we managed to limp into the city limits to a convenience store parking lot to investigate.

While I was trying to find the problem Mr. Stanley Prior drove up beside our car and offered his help. During the next two hours Mr. Prior towed us 1 1/2 miles to a garage; when we could not find the problem he drove us to a garage where he loaned me his tools, found a gentleman who opened his auto parts store to sell me a fuel pump; jump started our car after the fuel pump was installed; and was truly a good Samaritan to a stranger in need of assistance.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude and thanks to Mr. Prior for his help. The students did a great job of the Elba Marching Band. I will always have fond memories of Elbi and wish to publicly state my appreciation for the assistance we received from your citizens.

The incident did happen; however, we find some differing opinions surrounding the matter.

A representative of Campbell's Ambulance Service called to assure us that the students did a great job, but we find no answer to just why he wasn't called. We can find no definite answer as to just who should be responsible for paying an ambulance. . . the hospital, the doctor who ordered the transfer, the receiving hospital or the patient. We get mixed answers.

Hospital administrator Paul Grummer said this was handled properly and he has taken steps to insure the same doesn't happen again. He also noted that he is committed to working with the local doctors to solve the medical community problems being faced today.

Grummer said his staff is working overtime to insure area people get the proper medical treatment and hopefully in the near future the need to transfer fewer patients from this hospital will be a reality.

We appreciate the continued support of our community.

Sincerely Yours,

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Recently the Elba Marching Tiger Band held a community Calendar Sale. The students did a great job of selling calendars. The top three sellers in sales were awarded cash prizes. The winners were: Bogan, Cynthia White, and Tyrone Smith respectively.

I wish to thank the Elba Clipper, WELB-AM, WZTZ-FM, and the local merchants who advertised on our calendar for their support. We also want to thank today.

Doctors who made a donation so we are able for the first time to have a color photo of the Elba Marching Band on the calendar. Last but not least, we would like to thank all of those who purchased a calendar.

We appreciate the continued support of our community.

Sincerely Yours,

Debra Samuel Band Calendar Chairmen

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

It came to my attention recently that we have a grievous problem growing in our hospital. A patient was admitted on Sunday evening after developing a severe bleeding problem at home. She continued to bleed rather profusely and required transfusion of blood in the hospital to stabilize her condition.

It became apparent that she was going to require surgery to stop the bleeding problem and arrangements were made to transfer this patient to the Medical Center in Dothan to be cared for by a specialist. It was obvious that the patient should be transported by ambulance due to the nature of the problem.

The nursing staff in the hospital was instructed to contact Dave's Ambulance Service in Troy due to the fact that our rescue squad has told us they will transport no more patients from our facility to other hospitals and the apparent availability of Mr. Clayton Campbell's Ambulance Service.

I was called sometime later by the charge nurse in the hospital and told that the ambulance service could not transport this lady due to the fact that she could not pay the ambulance fee and apparently the refusal of Mr. Grummer, the hospital administrator, to back the bill.

The Elba High School students Jeanie Lee Clark, Lee Hunter Coleman and Robert Michael Rhodes were among 45 of Alabama's top high school juniors and seniors to attend an Auburn University seminar this summer.

The two-week program, sponsored by the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation, gave the students a close look at agricultural careers at the summer honors program entitled "Science and Technology in Agriculture."

Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark, Coleman, the son of Nedie Coleman, and Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Rhodes.

The seminar focused on discovery and investigation in agriculture, with students working under the direction of noted Auburn faculty and senior scientists. Purpose is to introduce talented students to the multi-faceted nature of modern agriculture, which includes not only traditional farming methods but also highly technical tools and techniques. Participants were selected by the College of Agriculture faculty from applicants and nominees from across the state.

Topics covered in the course included: genetic engineering, electron microscopy, financial analysis, remote sensing, water dynamics and tissue culture propagation.

ambulance service apparently left and returned to Troy and the patient was then faced with having to go to Dothan by private automobile.

All of this brings to point a very critical question. There are obviously a variety of problems that cannot be adequately cared for in Elba due to the limitations of physician availability and the confines of this facility; therefore patients must be transferred to outlying areas on occasion to receive definitive care.

At the present time we have very little in the way of a viable capability for transporting these patients. Even more bothersome is the attitude of the administration of the hospital.

While it is entirely likely that this patient was not in imminent danger of losing her life, I wonder what will happen if we are faced with a patient who is in such danger and needs transportation to another facility.

Obviously alternatives to this situation must be sought and it appears quite likely that Dr. Dyess and I will have to solve this problem ourselves without any assistance from the hospital administration.

We would like to assure the community that adequate arrangements will be made in a timely fashion. I am very sorry that this situation has occurred.

Sincerely,

HENRY S. COCHRAN, M.D.

Local residents Stephanie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Jr., and Susan Dorsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Dorsey were among those who participated in an 8-day travel-study program called "Researching Design in New York".

The travel program was sponsored by the Department of Consumer Affairs of Auburn University where both students are majoring in FASHION Merchandising.

The major focus was the study of Fashion Merchandising in the retailing center of the world. The retailing chain was followed from a fiber producer through to a buying office to major retail outlets, including product development workrooms.

Important costume, decorative arts, and textile museum collections were viewed. Of particular interest was the meeting of people "behind the scenes"—designers, executives, managers, coordinators, and buyers.

This field experience gave educational insight into curricular classwork and anticipated careers.

Time devoted to serious study was balanced with free time for independent activities, sightseeing and theater visits.

Richburg Initiated

Into Phi Kappa Phi

Marica Anne Richburg, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. David Richburg, and formerly of Elba, was inducted recently into membership of Phi Kappa Phi, Auburn University's top scholastic honorary.

Phi Kappa Phi, a nationwide honor society, recognizes the academic excellence of graduating seniors in the top five percent of their classes.

Richburg was among 43 summer AU graduates selected for the distinction.

She received the Bachelor's degree in Curriculum and Teaching at the August 28 graduation ceremonies.

And, as we follow the pattern of daily "looking unto Jesus," we will find ourselves being motivated daily, and being overcomers daily. But most important of all, we will find ourselves being "successful" for Christ daily.

NURSING HOME SPOTLIGHT

With Shirley Wise

Today is September 10 and we're visiting Mrs. Mollie Williams Allen, who is our "Very Special Person" this week, and who just recently celebrated her 90th birthday - on Sept. 1, to be exact. So, we'd like to wish you a belated but sincere "Happy Birthday, Miss Mollie!"

We will meet Miss Mollie through the eyes of love of her daughter, Jewell Turner, and really mean that when I say it, for one can sense the love she has for her mother, after only a few minutes of conversation with her, and the special relationship they have and enjoy.

Being 90 makes Miss Mollie to have been born in the year 1897, in the community of Tennesse, located in Pike County. She was one of five children born to Mr. and Mrs. John Williams. Mrs. Williams was the former Miss Ida Wilson, and Mr. Williams was a farmer.

The brothers and sisters of Miss Mollie are:

Rube, deceased, who was married to the former Carrie Bell Flowers, also deceased. They were residents of Troy until their deaths.

Jennie, deceased, who was married to Jimmy Lee Brazel, also deceased. They were living in Brundidge at the time of their deaths.

Viola, deceased, who was married to Will Lewis, also deceased. They were residing in Loxley at the time of their deaths.

Arthur, who, with his wife the former Ruby Wilson, lives in Dothan. They live in a place called "Gum's Home," which is not really a nursing home, but does house older, less feeble people. Sure wish we had one in Elba!

In July of 1922, Miss Mollie wed David Allen, a native of New Hope, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen. He was born Dec. 10, 1905.

Mrs. Allen was the former Veda English and Mr. John was a farmer and owned a grist mill called Allen's Grist Mill, located on a Tennesse road.

The brothers and sisters of Mr. David, all of whom are deceased, with the exception of one sister, are: Headon Ward, a resident of New Hope, and who was married to the late Claudie Ward. The remaining deceased brothers and sisters are:

Jim, who was married to the late Annie Cotton. They lived in Arton.

Louise, who was married to the late Jennie Hughes, and they resided in Ozark.

Mike, who was married to the former Ola Mae Slope, who still lives in New Hope.

Alva Lee, who was married to the late Buddy Hughes. They made their home in New Hope. Again I'd like to point out that it's interesting to me when siblings marry siblings - in this case, Mr. Louie and Miss Alva Lee married the Hughes siblings.

Arline, who was married to the late Mary Lee Bell and they lived in the community of New Hope.

Mr. David, at various times in his short life - he was only 28 when he passed away Jan. 3, 1933, a victim of diabetes - held a variety of jobs, among them farming, sold furniture for Mr. Calvin Whit, traveling to Florida and Georgia; and ran the grist mill at Reeton, which was called Prestwood's Mill.

To Mr. David and Miss Mollie were born two children - Lee Gene and Jewel.

Lee Gene lives near Haw Hill Church on Highway 125, with his wife, the former Margaret Parrish, a native of New Brocton. He works at Ft. Rucker, and Margaret is a homemaker. They have six children, of whom four are living. They are:

Joyce, a homemaker who is married to Frank Fortune, who is employed with a beer company in Albany, Ga., where they reside. They are the parents of one son.

Frankie, who is married to the former Tammy Bess, an Elba native. They reside in Daleville where Frankie manages a trailer court owned by his father and Tammy is employed with Domino Pizza in Enterprise. They have one son and one daughter.

Barbara Killingsworth resides in Dothan where she is employed with a sewing plant. She is the mother of one daughter.

Tommy lives in Columbus, Ga., and is with Civil Service at Ft. Benning. He is the father of one son. The two deceased children of Mr. Lee Gene are Harvey Gene, who was killed in an automobile accident at the age of 21 while on a vacation with his family enroute to Wyoming in 1979; and Alvie Lee who had a massive heart attack which took her life at the age of six months.

Miss Mollie's second child is the aforementioned Jewell Turner, who lives on Rt. 1, Elba. She recently retired from the Brundidge shirt factory, August 1, to be exact, after 25 1/2 years with them. Congratulations upon your retirement, Miss Jewell! She is the mother of three children. They are:

Billy, who is married to the former Fran Lowery, a Jack native, and they make their home in Phenix City where Billy is a supervisor with Colonial Bread and Train works in the office of the Opelika Mfg. Co. located in Phenix City. They are the parents of two sons.

Judy is married to Roy Corbitt, a North Carolina native. She is employed with the Brundidge shirt company and resides on Rt. 1, Elba, next door to Miss Jewell, and Roy lives in Dallas, Tex., where they own a business. They do not have any children.

Miss Jewell laughed and said that Judy turned 38 recently and that she was the same age when she started working at the Brundidge shirt factory, although Judy started in November of last year when she was 37.

The baby of the family is Sammy, who is married to the former Sharon Greenwood, a native of Elba. They live on Rt. 1, Elba, next door to Miss Jewell. (Lucky you, Miss Jewell, having a child on either side of you! When two of mine want to aggravate me, they'll say they're going to live in New York City and Hollywood, and it nearly kills me. But one (Jety) always says Elba is his home! You are blessed!)

Sammy is the second-shift foreman at Ansell, Inc., located in Dothan, and Sharon is employed with Southland. They have two daughters.

The seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, lovingly call Miss Mollie "Mama Mollie," or just simply "Mama."

Miss Mollie is a member of St. John's Baptist Church near Brundidge.

She loves the nursing home, Miss Jewell told us. Isn't that wonderful? She said since she had retired she has asked her mother to come and live with her, or to even visit her, and Miss Mollie quickly tells her, "No, leave me alone! I'm happy here."

She was admitted in December of 1985, and her roomie is Mrs. Ammie Allen, a lovely lady from New Brocton whom we've visited previously in these pages.

In fact, Miss Jewell said that when she told Miss Mollie that she was going to have to place her in the nursing home because of her failing health (Miss Jewell had daily help with her, but no night help and at that time she was still working), -- in the words of Miss Jewell, "I was crying because I didn't want to do it, and when I told her she looked at me and said, 'Well, Baby, that's where I need to be.' She understands and has never complained about a thing."

Continuing, she said, "Mama had never had her hair cut and I got in such a mess till they cut it for her and she looks so much younger."

A cheer for the beauticians who go up there and give of their time and talents!

We asked Miss Jewell to describe her mom to someone who didn't know her, and she said the following beautiful things:

"Mama has raised two sets of children - hers and mine. Since I've worked all my life, and when I was Jewell, (Lucky you, Miss Jewell, having a child on either side of you! When two of mine want to aggravate me, they'll say they're going to live in New York City and Hollywood, and it nearly kills me. But one (Jety) always says Elba is his home! You are blessed!)

Mrs. Mollie Williams Allen

Every day when I visit her, she'll say, 'I'm getting so old - why doesn't the Lord call me home?' and I tell her the Lord isn't ready for her yet. She's in fairly good health, and she acts like she feels good most of the time.

Before I forget I want to mention the jobs Miss Mollie has had and relate how very hard she has worked to support two fatherless children, and a beautiful incident of praying and faith Miss Mollie experienced as a widowed mother of two.

Louise Miss Jewell why her mom never remarried, as she was quite young when widowed, and she said her father, on his dying bed, looked at Miss Mollie and said, "Please don't marry and bring a man in on my children." She said through the years Miss Mollie went out with some good men, "but she never married because of Daddy's request."

Miss Mollie worked with the Alabama Relief Administration in 1935, as a supervising teaching ladies how to sew, and she also ran a canning factory in New Hope.

Miss Jewell has in her possession two postcards with return addresses of U.S. Dept. of Labor, U.S. Employment Service, to Miss Mollie, and on one it states that her wages were 12 1/2 cents an hour, and on the second, they had increased to 30 cents. They were both dated in the year 1935. How about that?

Something said to me - although I'll admit I'm one that thinks ladies should not have to perform down-right hard labor - and Miss Mollie was definitely a lady - she had to hike out and work in the fields! It was a case of doing it or starving! Now I'm not saying there is anything wrong with good, hard labor, but some of us have had it easy compared to others - and it doesn't seem fair! And she only got 50 to 75 cents a day! Miss Jewell recalled, "She'd leave home before daylight and would be after dark coming in! She worked in the fields, and her sons James and Rafe in New Hope, and Louie Disumke - picking cotton, hoeing peanuts and shaking peanuts."

Miss Jewell recalled another job she and Lee Gene and Miss Mollie did: "We used to 'bottom' chairs for Burson Whittington." (Of course I did not know what "bottoming" chairs meant, even though I did have a somewhat of an idea.) Miss Jewell continued, "We would weave cane bottoms in the chairs. Mr. Whittington would bring them to our house and we would bottom them for 10 cents a chair. When asked how many they could do in a day, she replied, "About 10," thereby earning a dollar a day!

But, on that $1.00 a day, Miss Jewell said, "We could take a quarter of it to the store and buy 10 pounds of sugar; another quarter would buy a gallon of cooking oil, and 50 cents would buy a 25-lb. bag of Ballard's flour. (Any of you out there remember eating biscuits made from Ballard's flour??) Eggs were 12 cents a dozen - a penny apiece - and a loaf of bread was 5 cents."

Ahhh, the good old days when a dollar was a dollar and everybody (well, almost everybody) was honest and adhered to the Golden Rule, and there were no wars or rumors of wars over a commodity called "black gold" in a place I can't even find on the globe! And, airplanes were not crashing every day (it seems)!)

Miss Jewell also remembered Miss Mollie telling her when tokens were used for paying tax on goods in lieu of money, in 1923. She said a penny would buy 10 tokens and it was one token per $1.00 worth of goods.

As Miss Jewell said, "Used to, you didn't have much money, but you could get by, and people didn't want as much, and seems like we were happy! Mama always cooked our breakfast before she left for the fields and she always left plenty for dinner for my brother and me."

Now the story of the faith of a Christian lady whose prayer was answered. Cold chills ran across me as Miss Jewell was telling me this. Some would call it coincidence, but I believe it was answered prayer!

Miss Jewell said, "Mama was always a praying woman, and last night she prayed to God because there was only enough flour in the house for breakfast the next morning - Mama always cooked biscuits at breakfast - and she had no job the next day, no one had asked her to come work, 'cause it was near July. The next morning, Malvin McWaters knocked on the door and told her there were weeds in his peanut field and could she come and work and he would give her 75 cents a day!"

Miss Jewell followed up this story with the comment, "God does answer prayer - and He really has taken care of my mama and my brother and me!"

This story reminds me of the widow of Zarephath in the Bible (1 Kings 17:8-16) who had but a handful of meal in a barrel and a little oil in a cruise in her home, and Elijah said to her, "... The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruise of oil fail, until the day that the Lord sendeth rain upon the earth. ... And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruise of oil fail, according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by Elijah."

Some favorites of Miss Mollie are: "Yellow roses - she grew them in the yard - she loved flowers; blue - she loved blue clothes; spring - because she could get out and work in the garden and yard; Christmas - because she cooked and planned for all of us and Santa Claus and everything; food - she loves peas, butterbeans, collards and just any kind of vegetable, but she's never eaten things like chitterlings, brains and scrambled eggs, nigs' feet, etc., things one thinks about other people eating; sewing - she would take the Sears Roebuck catalog and look at a dress and cut a pattern from newspaper and make the outfit. She used to sew for us and all the neighbors' children. She's worked all her life and stayed busy; she loved to cook and keep the house clean. The house was the main thing - she had to have her house clean! She mopped every week; every house we moved to, Mama would heat water in a wash pot and they called it 'scalding and scouring' the house - and she always did it. She loved cleanliness; she loved quilting and piecing quilts. And when she got older and we got electricity and television, she loved the soap opera, 'As the World Turns.' Now everybody around the house knew that when it came on, we shut up while it was on," she said laughing.

If Miss Mollie had one wish her daughter felt "she would wish that she would go to Heaven."

Would she want to relive her life and do anything differently? Miss Jewell replied, "No, I don't think so. She was always just taken everything as it came to her and acted like she was happy. She's never grumbled or complained."

Her advice to the younger generation: "Live for God and He'll meet the need."

Miss Jewell shared something funny: "Since Mama has gone to the nursing home, she chews about two packages of gum a week - Spearmint is her favorite. She used to dip snuff - she told me she had been dipping so long she couldn't remember when she started she was so young; and one day about three years ago a boy who was an Assembly of God member who had come to my house to deliver some furniture prayed for her, and I want you to know, she quit!"

In conclusion, she told us, "Mama and I were like sisters - we even had dresses alike. We've always enjoyed each other - we're very close."

And one can detect that closeness as I mentioned earlier.

I really enjoyed writing this article, as Miss Jewell was a fountain of interesting information and Miss Mollie was a very interesting and good lady about whom to write!

Visit the nursing home whenever you can and remember to lift up the residents there in your prayers.

The final word on the energy problem at our house - the utility bill arrived the other day - could have been better, could have been worse. But we have definitely been cooler!

***Thought for the week:*** My Sunday School teacher, Jean Helms, used a book in our lessons entitled Setting Men Free by Bruce Larson, and I enjoyed it so much that I wanted to share a couple of things from it.

"We cannot say that we love God whom we have not seen, if we do not love our brother whom we have seen." 1 John 4:20.

"To love truly is to become vulnerable, even as God so loved that He gave His Son to the world. To be vulnerable before another man means being totally known by that person. The Scripture just referred to implies that if among all the people we have met there is no one person whom we can love totally - that is with whom we can be vulnerable - we cannot say that we love God."

Setting Men Free by Bruce Larson

"Jesus tells us that the things He did we shall do also. The ability to understand people is one of the most effective gifts any Christian can have in the service of the Lord."

New Brockton tight end Toby Lee (84) heads upfield after pulling in a pass in the Gamecocks' 42-12 win over Arton. The Gamecocks will hit the road for the first time this season Friday night when they travel to East Brewton to battle W.S. Neal.

Brantley's Anthony Eiland (19) heads outside after finding nowhere to run in the middle of the Red Level defense. Eiland scored a touchdown in the Bulldogs' 15-12 loss to Red Level Friday night.

Brantley Drops 15-12 Decision To Red Level

By: Billy Wayne Williamson

The Brantley Bulldogs scored a pair of touchdowns in a two-minute span in the third quarter to grab the lead, but saw Red Level score in the closing minutes of the game as the visiting Tigers defeated the Bulldogs 15-12, Friday night in Brantley. The loss left the Bulldogs with an 0-2 record, while Red Level improved its slate to 2-0 with the win.

The Brantley defense was in complete command in the first quarter as it held Red Level to only one first down and 3 yards in total offense; however, the Bulldog offense couldn't get going as a pair of fumbles and a big loss on an attempted halfback pass killed all three Brantley possessions in the stanza.

Brantley's third fumble of the first half gave Red Level the ball at the Bulldog 26-yard line midway through the second quarter and the Tigers took advantage of the turnover to put the first points of the night on the board!

A big play in the mini-march was an interference penalty against the Bulldogs that moved the ball to the 10-yard line and the Tigers got on the board with 5:59 left in the half when Cortez Hall scored on a 3-yard scamper.

Scott Sweat added the extra point to give Red Level a 7-0 lead despite the gallant play of the Brantley defense.

Brantley finally put together a drive late in the quarter and behind the running of Anthony Eiland and Wesley Person marched to a first down at the Tigers' 13-yard line. A 4-yard run by Person moved the ball to the nine, but Person was hit with an 11-yard loss on an attempted pass and after a penalty moved the ball all the way back to the 26-yard line a fourth-down pass fell incomplete and the threat went by the board.

Brantley's David Lester recovered a Red Level fumble at the Tiger 19-yard line on the third play of the third quarter and the Bulldogs wasted no time in cashing in on the break as the second play following the recovery Wesley Person fired an 8-yard touchdown pass to Andy Kimbro.

A pass attempt for two points failed, but with 9:13 left in the third quarter Brantley had cut the Red Level lead to 7-6!

The Bulldog defense continued to dominate the Red Level offense on the Tigers' next series as on the first play the Tigers went to the air and the Bulldogs' Paul Cook intercepted the pass at the Tiger 34-yard line.

A short run by Anthony Eiland and a pass from Person to Kimbro left the Bulldogs facing a third-down-and-4 at the 28-yard line, and on the big third-down play Eiland got the call and rambled 28 yards into the end zone to give the Gamecocks the lead!

The two-point conversion failed; however, with 7:18 left in the third quarter Brantley had grabbed the lead 12-7.

Brantley put the ball in play at the Red Level 36-yard line following

New Brockton Gamecocks Explode Early To Bury Arton 42-12

By: Danny Belcher

The New Brockton Gamecocks took command at the start and cruised to an easy 42-12 win over the Arton Purple Cats, Friday night in New Brockton.

The win upped New Brockton's record to 2-1, while Arton slipped to 1-1 with the loss.

New Brockton received the opening kick and following a 40-yard return by Louis Page put the ball in play at the Gamecock 45-yard line.

The Gamecocks came out running straight at the Cats and needed only 6 plays to cover the distance and put points on the scoreboard!

Louis Page was the workhorse during the march, gaining 34 yards on 3 carries, and scored the touchdown on a 12-yard gallop.

Toby Lee added the extra point and with 9:20 left in the first quarter the Gamecocks were on top for good at 7-0.

New Brockton failed to mount a threat on its next two series as a fumble and a penalty killed the drives; however, the Gamecocks got the ball back late in the opening stanza and this time headed toward the Purple Cat goal.

A 10-yard run by Phil Smith got the drive off to a quick start and an 11-yard run by the senior fullback moved the ball within the shadows of the goal post, while Louis Page got the score on a 1-yard plunge.

Lee again hit on the p.a.t., and with 10:51 left in the second quarter the Gamecocks' lead was up to 14-0!

New Brockton got the ball right back on a fumble and it took only one play to add to its lead as on first down Vince Cole broke loose and rambled 42 yards for the touchdown.

Lee added the p.a.t. to up the Gamecocks' lead to 21-0 with 9:43 still left in the half.

New Brockton got the ball at midfield late in the half following a series of punts and drove 50 yards in 7 plays to extend its lead!

An 11-yard pass from Donnie Smith to Robert Kilow started the drive and it was a Smith pass from 7 yards out to Kenny Griffin that resulted in the Gamecock touchdown.

Phil Smith (66) leaves defender far behind.

Toby Lee made it 4-for-4 on extra points as the New Brockton lead ballooned to 28-0 with :52 left in the half.

Arton refused to give up and despite the deficit came out throwing on its next possession; however, the Purple Cat offensive gamble backfired as on the final play of the half New Brockton's Louis Page intercepted an Arton aerial and raced untouched 46 yards for another New Brockton score!

Lee tacked on the p.a.t. and at the half the Gamecocks went in with a big 35-0 lead.

The Gamecocks recovered an Arton fumble early in the second half and wasted little time making the lead 42-0!

Mark Blair began the drive with a short gain, while Matt Rodgers picked up 12 yards on a sweep to get the Gamecocks close, and then Kenny Griffin got the touchdown on a 2-yard plunge.

Toby Lee made a perfect 6-for-6 on the p.a.t. and with 9:03 still left in the third quarter the Gamecocks' lead was up to 42-0 and it was all over but the shouting!

Arton found the going a little easier against the Gamecock reserves and put together a drive of its own following the New Brockton score to reach paydirt.

The score came on a 1-yard run by Lorenzo Pearson and while the extra point attempt was blocked, the Cats were on the board, but trailing 42-6 with the third quarter winding to a close.

The two rivals swapped fumbles to open the fourth quarter as the play got a little sloppy; however, Arton managed one final drive late in the game and scored when Lorenzo Pearson dove over from a yard out to make the final score - New Brockton 42 - Arton 12.

Bulldog quarterback Wesley Person (11) looks for a hole in last week's narrow 15-12 loss to Red Level. Person tossed a touchdown pass in the game and sparked the Brantley offense in the battle against the Tigers.

the next series and appeared to be on the verge of blowing the game open as the Bulldogs marched to a first down at the 25, but the Bulldogs lost a total of 10 yards on three plays and punted the ball into the end zone on fourth down as the scoring opportunity failed to put any points on the board.

A fumble recovery by Brantley's Laron Tillis stopped a Red Level drive at the Bulldog 16-yard line with 7:40 left in the game, but the Bulldogs had to punt the ball right back and Red Level took the ball over on the Red Level 30-yard line.

A pass interference penalty against Brantley on a third-down play kept the Tiger drive alive and moved the ball to midfield with 3:45 left on the clock, and two plays later the Tigers' Thurston Turner took a pitchout and fooled the Bulldog defense by passing to Scott Sweat, who trotted into the end zone to give the Tigers the lead.

Paul Steele ran in the two-point conversion to up the Red Level lead to 15-12 with 2:53 left in the game.

Brantley attempted to pull out the win on its final series, but failed to get a first down and Red Level ran out the clock to claim the win.

Anthony Eiland gained 71 yards on 17 carries to lead Brantley, while Ellis Harris added 23 yards on 6 carries. Jeremy Gardner gained 35 yards on 8 carries to lead Red Level and Cortez Hall added 32 yards on 8 carries.

Kinston Bulldogs Clobber Wicksburg 33-0

Kinston cheerleaders had plenty to cheer about Friday night as the Bulldogs poured it on the Wicksburg Panthers 33-0 to claim a big win.

By: Greg Brunson

The Kinston Bulldogs' defense played a near flawless game this past Friday night as they dominated the Wicksburg Panthers by a score of 33-0.

The Bulldogs forced a turnover and kept the Panthers outside their 30-yard line on all but one possession.

The only real threat of the night for Wicksburg came on their first possession of the game.

The Panthers put together a 10-play drive that went from midfield down to the Bulldog 10-yard line before the defense stiffened and took the ball over on downs.

The Bulldogs drove to two first downs before being forced to punt, getting them out of the bad field position. An exchange of punts gave Kinston the ball at the Wicksburg 37-yard line and it took only 9 plays to travel to the endzone with Todd Hawthorne scoring the first points of the season on a one-yard plunge.

Darrell Berry drilled the extra point to give Kinston a 7-0 lead with 7:47 to play in the first half.

Kinston had one more chance to score before the half with Steven Norris recovering a Wicksburg fumble at the 35-yard line.

The Bulldogs drove 8 plays, highlighted by a 20-yard pass play from Chad Keith to Todd Hawthorne. This drive fell short when Keith was knocked down at the four-yard line as the clock ran out.

Wicksburg took the kickoff to open the second half but it didn't take Kinston long to get on the scoreboard again. On the fourth play of this possession, Noel Vanlandingham threw an interception to Dodd Hawthorne who raced untouched for 45 yards and the touchdown.

Berry again added the extra point to stretch the Kinston lead to 14-0 with 9:53 to go in the third quarter.

Steven Norris set the Bulldogs up with another chance to score, this time with a driving interception at the Panther 32-yard line. Seven plays got the Bulldogs down to the 8-yard line but on fourth down, a 25-yard field goal attempt sailed wide to the left.

The next Bulldog possession started at the Wicksburg 45-yard line. A seven-play drive led by the rushing of Mike Glass and Donnie Nelson ended in a 19-yard touchdown jaunt around left end by Nelson.

The point-after was no good, leaving the score at 20-0 with 5:38 left in the game.

Larry Beavers intercepted another Wicksburg pass and returned it to the five-yard line to set up the next Bulldog points as Coach Moody got a chance to play a lot of young players.

Sophomore fullback Lamar Chambliss scored on a two-yard run with 4:25 to play in the game. The kick failed, leaving the score - Kinston 26 - Wicksburg 0.

The last points of the night were set up when Wicksburg punter Ron Pollard kicked the ball into the back of his blocking back. The ball was downed at the 2-yard line and freshman halfback Chris Austin covered that distance on the first play from scrimmage.

Berry added the point-after to finish the scoring with Kinston leading 33-0.

Mark Vaughn Participates In Student Science Training Program

College is usually the next step in the educational system after high school. However, 135 high school students recently had their introduction to the rigors of university life one year early. These students were selected to participate in the 29th Annual/Student Science Training program (SSTP). This eight-week residential research participation program is designed to provide high ability students who are interested in pursuing scientific careers with the opportunity to work in science, engineering, and medical research laboratories with eminent doctors, professors and research professionals.

Students are chosen for the program on the basis of their outstanding academic achievements and interest in science. While in the SSTP, they follow a rigorous schedule including college level instruction in statistics and workshops in computer programming and languages.

The SSTP is held on the University of Florida campus in order to enhance the participants' "college-level" experience. Through their residence in the University residence halls the students are provided with the valuable experience of on-campus living while still in high school.

The Florida Foundation for Future Scientists (FFS), a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of science, engineering and medical fields and to the advancement and continuing education of young scientists in the States of Florida, administers the SSTP. Dr. Elizabeth F. Abbot, UF Faculty Member, has been Director of the program since 1974.

This summer Mark Alan Vaughn worked with Professor Carl D. Crane and Mr. Mike Griffin in the Department of Electrical Engineering. His research project was entitled "Graphic Animation of a Robotic Excavator." He plans to pursue a career associated with aviation, becoming a mechanical or aeronautical engineer or a U.S. Navy pilot.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF ALABAMA

JOHN DILLARD, ET AL.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
GRENSHAW COUNTY, ALABAMA, ET AL.,
Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 85-7-1332-N
Re: Coffee County Board of Education

NOTICE TO CLASS
TO: ALL BLACK CITIZENS OF COFFEE COUNTY, ALABAMA:

In this class action brought by John Dillard, et al., on behalf of themselves and all black citizens of Coffee County, Alabama, Chaffery, the election system for the Coffee County Board of Education, the named plaintiffs and the defendant Coffee County Board of Education have informed this Court that they wish to compromise and finally resolve this lawsuit on the following basis:

1. A final injunction would be issued against the conduct of further elections of members of the Coffee County Board of Education under the at-large election scheme provided for in the Constitution of the State of Alabama.

2. Under the proposed settlement, future elections will be conducted from 7 single-member districts. The boundaries of those single-member districts are the same as those utilized for the Coffee County Commission. A map of those districts may be seen at the administrative offices of the Board of Education during normal business hours.

3. Elections from the single-member districts will be conducted according to the following schedule:

In 1988 elections would be held in Districts 5, 4 and 2. In 1990 elections would be held in Districts 1 and 7. In 1992 elections would be held in Districts 3 and 6. Board members would continue to serve six-year staggered terms.

4. Plaintiffs are the prevailing party in this action and are entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses. The amount of attorneys' fees and expenses will be determined by the court following final approval of the proposed compromise. Fees and expenses have not been part of the negotiations to this proposed settlement.

5. The court has tentatively approved the settlement of this case on the basis stated above. However, because this lawsuit is a class action, this court has the responsibility of assuring that the interest of the entire class of black citizens of Coffee County are protected before giving its final approval to the proposed settlement. Accordingly, if any black citizen of Coffee County, Alabama, objects to the proposed settlement, he or she should set out the objection in writing, identifying this case by its name and number and mail or deliver the objection to the court on or before the 17th day of November, 1987. In addition, this court will conduct a public hearing on the 20th day of November, 1987, at 2:00 o'clock p.m., at which time it will consider all objections from members of the plaintiff class to the proposed settlement, whether made in writing or in person.

Dated this 26th day of August, 1987.

ROUND AND ABOUT WITH ERIA

By Eria Belcher 897-2006

Whoa loveth instruction loveth knowledge; but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

A good man obtaineth favor of the Lord; but a man of wicked devices will be condemned. A man shall not be established by wickedness; but the root of the righteous shall not be moved. A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband; but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

The thoughts of the righteous are right; but the counsels of the wicked are deceit. The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood; but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them. The wicked are overthrown, and are not; but the house of the righteous shall stand. A man shall be commended according to his wisdom; but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised. SCHOOL TIME BRINGS CHANGES... Now that school has started back, it is time for a change in daily schedules: there is homework to consider.

We have said before how important a routine is for children. Up front, let me say I realize that a schedule can be extremely difficult to establish. Parents must decide how important school is in the life of their child.

It is important enough to insist that your child complete homework assignments before outside activities or immediately after the evening meal or before any television programs are watched? The family situation will determine the exact schedule for homework. The point is that the parents' views and feelings toward the importance of homework will have a great deal to do with the child's overall attitude toward school.

Give some thought as to whether

People About Eating Oysters

The Alabama Department of Public Health cautions persons with certain chronic health problems not to eat raw oysters because of the risk of acquiring a bacterium that can sometimes cause a fatal illness.

Persons who are known to have liver problems, who require frequent blood transfusions, or who have other problems with iron and metabolism are advised not to eat raw oysters.

According to Dr. Charles Woernle, state epidemiologist, "Vibrio species are thought to be part of the normal marine flora, and as such may commonly be present in raw oysters. Because the case fatality ratio of this disease is nearly 50 percent, we advise persons with predisposing conditions not to eat raw oysters."

Three cases of Vibrio vulnificus sepsis, two of them fatal, were diagnosed recently along the Alabama gulf coast. These patients had underlying medical conditions that predisposed them to develop V. vulnificus sepsis after eating raw oysters.

Museum Hosts
Flea Market

The Pike Pioneer Museum is hosting a quarterly Flea Market on September 12, on the grounds of the museum beginning at 7:00 a.m. There will be a $5.00 charge for exhibitors to reserve a space. As in the past, exhibitors must provide their own tables and set-ups.

Some of the many items that will be available include: kitchen items, children's clothing, country crafts, wood crafts, children's furniture, antique furniture, jewelry and much more.

If interested in reserving a space or obtaining information, contact Debbie Campbell at 566-3597 or send a check to the Pike Pioneer Museum, 248 Highway 231 North, Troy, Ala. 36081.

Introducing The Fine China Event of the Year

Johann Haviland BAVARIA Germany

One of the Most Respected Names In Porcelain China

Barely does an opportunity like this come to you. Now, for a limited time only, you can acquire a complete set of genuine Johann Haviland Bavaria Germany Fine Porcelain China at prices over 40% less than the prices of comparable quality china in fine department stores. And you can acquire it on an easy layaway plan that lets you spread your purchase comfortably over a 15 week period.

This is the same Johann Haviland Bavaria Germany Fine China that, since the early part of this century, has achieved and maintained a worldwide reputation for outstanding, handcrafted quality and delicate, beautiful design.

Here's Our Plan: Buy China Stamps For Only 99¢ Each

with each $3.00 purchase

Collect 33 stamps then redeem them for a 20 piece set consisting of four, 5 piece place settings. China and crystal accessories are also available.

Here's how you can get your very own set. Visit our store to see this elegant china and pick up a china saver brochure. That day and every day you shop you can buy china saver stamps for 99¢, with each $3.00 purchase. Acquire 33 stamps and we will present you with a gift boxed 20-piece service for four in your pattern choice. Matching accessory items will be available throughout the promotion period. But each week we'll feature one or two of these accessories at special prices. Watch our weekly ads for featured items and special pricing.

So don't delay. You may never see such elegant porcelain china at such low prices again. Stop in today and see the outstanding quality and design of Johann Haviland China for yourself. Then compare its prices on our plan ($32.67 for a 20 piece service for four) with the prices of comparable quality china in department and jewelry stores ($60.00-$100.00 for a 20 piece service for four). We're sure you'll be convinced that this is probably the most tempting china offer ever made.

Let me tell you about My Brandchildren;

Their parents have named them Piggly Wiggly, T.V. and Marquee. They're all three mighty popular because of their dependable, ole fashioned everyday goodness (it runs in the family.) And too they don't cost nearly as much to enjoy as famous national brandchildren.

Come to see me and take a crowd of my brandchildren home with you and you will agree that they're the best brandchildren in town at the lowest cost anywhere!!

Assistant Highway Director Tom Espy holds map showing planned highway improvements in the state of Alabama. Seated at right is State Highway Director Royce King. Both were present at last week's meeting of a committee formed seeking statewide improvements of Highway 84.

State officials report additional improvements are slated for Highway 84

State, county and city officials from across Alabama were in attendance at a meeting on Friday, Sept. 11, to discuss future improvements to Highway 84 and heard State Highway Director Royce King state that while plans to improve the cross-state highway were high on the department's priority list he didn't foresee funds available that would make it possible to four-lane the highway across the state.

King told the large gathering in attendance at an Andalusia luncheon that he and other state officials were vitally interested in the improvement of Highway 84 and supported the work of the committee formed to organize improvement plans, but told those present that the necessary funding to four-lane the highway was nowhere in sight.

Assistant Highway Director Tom Espy told the committee and those in the audience that the state had already placed an emphasis on improving Highway 84 and pointed out recent improvements to bridges in Clarke County, a statewide widening project, the four-laning of a stretch of 84 in Ashford, construction between Wicksburg and Daleville and the widening of the bypass in Enterprise.

"I urge all city and county officials to attend public hearings when proposed highway improvements are to be discussed," stated Espy, "and I also urge those people to support the plans of the state. To develop a Developmental Highway System in Alabama three things need to be done:

1. The state finalizing plans for those areas needing work.
2. The establishment of a system that will place every citizen within 20 miles of a four-lane highway, and
3. Committees forming that will work to discover special needs in areas not covered by the state."

"The local support and attendance at public hearing is imperative when discussions are taking place on highway improvement," stated Sen. Crum Foshee. "If you don't attend the meetings you may not get what you want. I am like you in that I would like to see Highway 84 improved across the state, but you can't just wish it done. It will take work and this committee is a step in the right direction."

Included among those in attendance were Coffee County Rep. Jimmy Holley, Coffee County Probate Judge Marion Brunson, Elba Mayor Bob English, Elba Councilman Jack Prescott and Elba City Clerk Dad English. Included among the state officials were six members of the Legislative Long-range Highway Planning Committee and Speaker of the House Jimmy Clark.

Stevens Store robbed

The Robert G. Stephens General Store, located in the Damascus Community, south of Elba, was robbed last week of approximately $2,000 in goods and money by a trio of burglars that fled in a pickup truck after being discovered by neighbors.

Robert G. Stevens, owner of the store, reported that on the night of Thursday, Sept. 10, at approximately 11 p.m. neighbors living across the road from the store heard noise coming from inside the store and went to the store to investigate. They discovered three white men inside the store; however, the men fled the scene after spotting the neighbors and reportedly fled in a pickup truck.

Stevens reported the thieves took approximately $700 in knives, $600 in cigarettes, $100 in cash, $200 in tools, a microwave oven valued at $150 and assorted other items during the robbery. Hundreds of pennies were found on the floor of the store and several quarters were found outside the store, apparently left by the burglars after being discovered.

Anyone having any information about the burglary or any mysterious occurrences following the burglary are asked to call the Coffee County Sheriff's Dept. at 897-5012 or 347-2616.

Parents & teachers voice concern about overcrowding in classrooms

The Elba City School Board of Education met Thursday, Sept. 10, and faced a conference room packed with parents and teachers concerned about reported overcrowding in classrooms at the Elba Elementary School in both kindergarten and the first grade.

Mrs. Carol Laney was spokesperson for the large gathering and the members of the school board that she and the other people present were concerned about the overcrowded classrooms in kindergarten and first grades at the Elba Elementary School and were seeking answers to the problem.

"I am afraid the overcrowding in the classrooms could prevent the students from receiving the individual attention they need in the early grades," Mrs. Laney stated, "and also prevent teachers from being able to provide the extra time needed by students who may need individual assistance."

"Last year the first grade had large classes, and after holding back 16 students and combining them with the large class coming up from kindergarten this year, the classes are even bigger than ever. Is there any way the school system can employ an additional teacher for both the first grade and kindergarten?"

Elba Supt. of Education Billy Crews informed the board members that a total of 105 students were enrolled in the first grade in four classes, and in kindergarten there were 100 students in four classes.

"The Elba City School System is presently eight teachers above the minimal number allotted by the state," reported Crews, "and while we are all concerned about the large classes it would be financially unsound to add extra teachers at this time."

"I have held several conferences with elementary principal Sara Sharpless, and we have discussed a number of possibilities to help with the situation, including adding personnel and transferring personnel from other areas. We have worked many hours trying to find a solution to the problem - and I agree we have a problem - but we need to wait until the budget is released in October before we begin adding personnel."

Teachers at the meeting expressed concern about their ability to give students in kindergarten and first grades the quality of education expected and echoed the feelings of the parents that there were too many students in the classes to allow teachers the extra time to devote to the student who falls behind.

The teachers remarked that the high number of first-graders retained was a result of the overcrowding, but also stated that if not for such a large number of students, even more students could have been retained for another year.

Supt. Crews told school board members that he could not make a recommendation at the present time to alleviate the problem, but promised the board and those present that a solution could be worked out and would be worked out as soon as possible.

Before the large delegation left the meeting, it also expressed displeasure with the numerous fundraising activities going on at the school. It was stated that various organizations at the school were constantly raising money through sales of items, and that at the present time elementary school students were selling candy for the PTO.

One parent stated that the students were pressured into selling the candy and were told by a teacher that the student "would sell" the candy whether he wanted to or not and that the students were being exploited by salesmen who got them excited about the sales by promising gifts with large orders.

The delegation was almost unanimous in stating that the constant fund-raising at the schools placed a hardship on the parents and the community and placed undue pressure on the students, who feel they must sell the items.

Supt. Crews told the group that the board could take any action it wished about the fund-raising activities, but board members seemed reluctant to speak on the matter and made no comments concerning the practice.

In other action at the monthly meeting, the board:

- ***approved a resolution recognizing the week of Sept. 20-26 as Alabama School Bus Safety Week;
- ***approved a request to permit the band to participate in the LaFayette Marching Classic, set for Oct. 31 - Nov. 1 in Atlanta, Ga.;
- ***approved the construction of a concrete walk from the music building to the gym;
- ***employed Wayne Nelson on a part-time basis as a refrigeration and air conditioning repairman;
- ***tabled a planned discussion on the results of the 1987 Stanford Achievement Test; and
- ***was informed that the sales tax check for the month of August totaled $24,360.27.

being told no word had been received from the governor's office on a request for state funding for the project, requested Commissioner Bradley to follow through with his earlier pledge to make a motion to pave the road when wet.

Bradley made the motion to pave the 2½-mile stretch of roadway and the motion received a quick second from Commissioner Damascus Crittenden; however, when the vote was taken on the motion it died by a vote of 4-2, with Commissioners

Stevens and Billy Egerton all voting against the motion.

Commissioner Bryan stated, "There are other dirt roads in the county in just as bad a shape as this road and I can't see borrowing the money to pave this road without paving all the other roads in the same shape."

Commissioner Bill Faulk echoed Bryan's sentiments and stated, "I haven't lost hope that the state will come through and help us pave the road, and I assure all the members of this commission are concerned and intend to pursue the matter to get the road paved; however, there are other roads in the same shape and no money to pave this one and the others isn't being fair."

In other action at Monday's meeting, the commission:

- ***was reminded of special celebrations honoring the bicentennial of the United States Constitution set for across the county, with featured events on Sept. 17;
- ***presented a resolution passed by the Association of County

County Commission votes against road paving

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, Sept. 14, at the courthouse in Elba and voted 4-2 against a motion by Commissioner Eugene Bradley to pave the Sconiersville Road using borrowed funds.

A committee comprised of Sconiersville Community residents was present at the meeting and after equipped with the most modern lifesaving equipment.

The unit is equipped with the latest high tech equipment necessary to transport the critically ill patient in a stabilized condition, and when the patient is inside the mobile unit the medical team has all the same equipment available at the most modern intensive care unit at a hospital.

Major equipment on board includes cardiac monitors and defibrillators; oxygen, suction, intubation equipment, ventilators and ventilation supplies; IV pumps, cardiac balloon pumps; OB and pediatric care equipment; special equipment for the trauma patient and all necessary medication.

The staff on the unit always includes a registered nurse, a pulmonologist and a registered emergency medical technician and will also include a physician when deemed necessary.

"The intensive care unit from Southeast Alabama Medical Center gives everyone in the tri-states area a greater chance at survival in case of critical care situations," added Grummer, "and we in the Elba area are indeed fortunate to have this unit available seven days a week, 24 hours a day."

"With the ambulance services provided in this area through the Elba Rescue Squad, Picher's Ambulance Service and Southeast Alabama Medical Center, we are guaranteed top quality medical service when it is needed," stated Grummer. "I hope all the residents in this area are now comfortable with the services they have available. We at Elba General Hospital will always be here to help serve the needs of the public."
